The park, only 11km. from the city, is where you will take in the lakes, lagoons, rivers and estuaries of the Beagle Channel. Then, on to Mount Susana, the start of the Austral Fueguino Railroad Station and a stop for this optional tour. Later, at Ensenada Bay, look out onto the Redonda and Estorbo Islands. Once back on Route 3, we come to Roca Lake and walk along its shores to the Lapataia River, which naturally drains into the lake. At the end of the Route 3 on Lapataia Bay, we find ourselves on the other side of the park.

We will go southeast to the center of the Beagle Channel up to Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse of the archipelago of the same name. On our way to Island of the Sea Lions, we will contemplate the playfulness of these curious and friendly mammals and navigate for 20 minutes in complete silence observing their habitat. The catamaran then heads toward Island of the Birds to see the Magellan cormorants and the majesty of the Albatross, Petrels, Great Skuas and another 20 marine bird species. We will sail along the Paso Chico to return to Ushuaia.
